Assessor Comments	Small line of Red Angus heifers with their first calf at foot, running on native country these heifers will only go forward after coming out of a very wet winter/Spring season. Gregory Red Angus have been a closed herd for in excess of twenty years. Heifers range in age from just over two year old to two and a half year old. Heifers presented in store condition and two were slightly stiry at weighing but settled quickly after assessment. Calves are not marked.
