Temperament

Yards	Crush	Paddock
Quiet: 16 head Slightly Stirry: 2 head	Quiet: 15 head Slightly Stirry: 3 head	Temperament not assessed in Paddock

Typical of breed with some tendency to run to the space. But handle well and only agitate if separated from group. Would develop into very quiet line with continued handling.

Handled With: Bikes , Vehicles

Assessor Comments	Nicely bred line of Angus x steer weaners. Calves show plenty of frame and are bred from genuine larger frame droughtermaster cows. Calves for their age show good temperament but would be best suited to going through a full weaning program at delivery to ensure they calm accordingly. They represent the vendors complete drop with the heifer portion being retained. They stand even as a group and a relatively tight weight range.
