Handled With	These steers were good to handle and showed respect when being drafted through the pound. A couple steers stirred up when separated out. They worked well through the yards, flowed well through the crush and settled as a mob after being processed. Bikes , Dogs , Horses , On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	A quality draft of one brand, vendor bred Droughtmaster steers. These steers were all bred on Herbertvale Station and are all sired by Glenland bulls. They have been running at the vendors backgrounding property at Coominya for over two months. These steers are showing plenty of growth and frame. The mob handled well through the yards. The vendor has pretreated the steers for ease of movement to clean areas and guarantees them clear of the dip (vendor to pay for clearing). Don't miss a good line of backgrounder steers, ready to perform.
