Temperament

Yards	Crush	Paddock
Quiet: 55 head	Quiet: 52 head Slightly Stirry: 3 head	Temperament not assessed in Paddock

Heifers and calves were quiet and easy to handle in the yards, with three heifers noted to be slightly agitated in the crush when weighing but settled quickly once returned to the mob.

Handled With Bikes , On foot

Notable Traits

	Traits
4 Head	Pink eye scarring / cloudy eye
3 Head	Red tinge in coat - calves
4 Head	Ring worm marking - calves
2 Head	White on under belly to navel

Assessor Comments Well bred young Angus females putting everything into their 213kg calves at foot, running with Wagyu sires. Heifers are medium to mostly large frame presenting in store to forward store condition that show all the positive attributes of well breed Angus females. Angus Calves at foot are of mixed sex, July / August drop and marked. Young future matrons that would be a great addition to a new operation or existing program.
