Assessor Comments	Top draft of the Konongwootong Autumn drop 2023 Angus steer calves that present in healthy store condition. Calves have continued to move forward considering seasonal conditions. I have no doubt with the breeding behind these calves, that given the right circumstances they will continue push ahead into feeder weighted steers the other side of winter. Please note there is a small percentage of calves that have pink eye scarring and some calves showing small amount of ringworm. Please also note that the vendor has multiple runs of autumn and spring drop calves in todays sale.
