Gentle and quiet bull was easy to handle. Would allow at some stage to give him a scratch on the head. We had no concerns

Assessor Comments	I have seen the progeny from this Bull over the last couple of years, they always have good weight for age. He is a nice clean coated bull, and his calves are very much the same. This Bull would suit someone who either runs a small breeding herd or introduce him to a larger group. His strike rate has been 100% last couple of seasons. Located Just outside of Pittsworth he's in tick free country and ready to go with notice. He's got plenty of life in him as spent his time with only a small number of breeders
