This line of heifers move well through the yards. Heifers have a tenancy to rush if pressured and have a larger flight zone. These heifers arrived as if handled in large numbers in a corporate type situation with quite a lot of haste. Since arriving they have been handled and settled down significantly. If quietly handled and not rushed, heifers are no drama to handle.

Handled With Bikes , On foot , Vehicles

Assessor Comments	A line of "one mark" Raff blood Angus heifers originally bred in Victoria. These heifers are really on the move ahead and are ready to feed on to finish or to join and turn in to stylish matrons.
