	When isolated or put under pressure, cows did become agitated. Once returned to mob and as a herd cows settled quickly and were no problem to handle. Would pose no problem to experienced cattle persons with correct handling facilities.
Handled With	Bikes , On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	A very good quality line of locally bred cows and calves with all their life ahead of them, just hitting their prime as breeders, all the hard work done. Cows are doing a great job on their second calf at foot, calves have been marked and tagged, ready to join to bull of your choice. A very hard article to find.
