Assessor Comments	Opportunity to purchase a line of Hicks Angus Composite steers that are out of large framed Rennylea Angus Cows. These composite steers would suit someone who wants to take advantage of the recent rain and put some steers away looking to sell them in the spring at feedlot weights. Nb Please note at time of assessment it was noticed that approx 10 steers were noticed with some pink eye scaring but not deemed detrimental. Also there was approx 10 steers also noticed with light warts on their neck and face (refer photo)and 1 steer had a cut on their off side (photo). Vendor has another lot of steers in the same sale
