Assessor Comments	This vendor-bred line of cows presents a fantastic opportunity for anyone looking to enter the breeding game or enhance an existing herd. With no expense spared, these cows boast strong bloodlines, including Anvil and Fernhill, ensuring quality genetics. These females have been apart of the vendors core breeding program all their lives and are only available due to a tight season in the district. These proven mothers have had all the hard work done, raising strong poddy calves. Don't miss the chance to secure well-bred, well-handled cows ready to contribute to your herd's future success.
