Exceptionally quiet animals, somewhat stubborn to move around as they were so docile. In certain cases, Vendor had to lean on these females to push them through the race.

Assessor Comments Reedy Creek Pastoral are offering a tremendous opportunity to purchase exceptionally quiet & well-handled Cows & Calves that will be a significant boost to your already existing Autumn calving herd or be that starter package you've always been looking for. Reedy Creek Pastoral is generally a Spring calving operation & unfortunately had a not so welcoming pregnancy test early last year which left them with the difficult decision as to what to do with their beloved classed in females? Thankfully for you as a prospective purchaser, they decided to rejoin them for an Autumn calving program to give someone else the opportunity to experience the journey of owning well-bred females with outstanding docility. These matrons are currently doing a fantastic job on their offspring & given the chance they will flourish on greener pastures. It is to be noted these animals are not culls & are sold under genuine circumstances.
