	Good quiet run of Angus steers. Ran through crush easily, with 4 becoming very slightly agitated on scales, quickly calming once back with the mob. A few steers had slight rush in yards, only typical of age.
Handled With	Bikes , Dogs , Horses , Vehicles

Assessor Comments	Angus steers ready to really go ahead if given the opportunity. These steers range from 294-393kg at assessment and should go onto meet most market specs. Steers are by vendors own Angus cows, originally purchased via A+. There were 1 steer seen with varying degree of blue eye scarring, 5 steers seen with slight rub, looks more light dead hair rub rather than lice. 1 steer seen with white on belly and cod. Steers were quiet and easily handled with the occasional steer becoming slightly agitated on the scales, quickly calming once removed.
