Assessor Comments	This well put together line of young dairy bred store steers that present in strong and healthy store condition. Steers are well grown for their age and showing all the right signs that they will grow into large bullocks. Purchased as weaned bucket reared male calves from the Goulburn Valley region off AuctionsPlus and direct from dairy farms. Steers were very quiet to handle in both the yards and paddock on assessment. These steers have been drafted out as the full black type Friesians, also a couple that show signs of being bred out of a crossbred cow.
