Assessor Comments Good line of Angus Steers, that have grown well for age. 10 of these steers were purchased back in June 2025 at SELX store sale, would normally be retained and grown out, though due to change of operation are here for sale. These steers have been well handled in small set up and would respond well to good feed going forward. Please note: one steers with small patch of white on belly. Also open to discussion on discount of red Angus steer.
