Vendor Comments	In recent years, there has been more emphasis on the Aussie white breed and I'm particularly happy with how they are shedding and the weight that these ewes have put on their lambs already. They are big, young ewes with heavy lambs at foot.

Assessor Comments	A very nice line of Aug/Sep 2021 drop First X Aussie White, Wiltipoll Ewes with Aussie White lambs at Foot. The Lambs are sired by Kalnari blood Aussie White rams and the rams will be pulled out on delivery. All the lambs are marked and are in very good order with the opportunity of weaning very shortly. Please note that there are 2 to 3 ewes that have not lambed yet, and look as though they wont lamb for a period of time as the ewes were joined at such a young age. These sheep will not disappoint and the lambs already have an average weight of 34kg.
