Heifers were well behaved throughout the drafting and mothering process. Some becoming slightly anxious whilst under pressure, but settling as soon as they re-joined the mob. All reasonably sensible to weigh, with just a few doing some stomping on the scales and displaying some nervous behaviour, again, settling once let out and returned to the mob. One heifer quite anxious throughout process, listed above as stirry. Very quiet in the paddock to walk through on foot and take photos of.

Assessor Comments	Complete dispersal of Team Te Mania female herd Very nice line of young Team Te Mania Angus Heifers, Purchased Ex Coomete Pty Ltd, Hexam VIC. Healthy young mums with good shape, carrying plenty of milk, and doing an excellent job on their bright eyed young calves. Calves are full of life and flying forward with the recent sunshine on their backs. Easy to mother up in the draft, wasting no time and busily looking for their calves. Run behind single wire fences on an ex dairy farm. Very nice line of low maintenance breeders that will grow in to top class matrons and be productive females for years to come. This is a tough sale, brought on by a change in operation and reconditioning the dairy. Note. 1 Heifer noted with an eye blemish. Not deemed detrimental.
