Assessor Comments	This line of PTIC heifers are a real credit to the vendors. If your looking for genuine Angus breeders then here they are the breeding in these cattle is second to none and it shows not only in the weights but the depth and frame that they have grown into and as they continue to grow. Their temperament makes them easy to handle even when under pressure. They may be a smaller line but would make a great addition to any herd or a stand alone herd. If its quality your after then this is them with all the boxes ticked.
