Temperament

Yards	Crush	Paddock
Quiet: 64 head Slightly Stirry: 5 head	Quiet: 56 head Slightly Stirry: 13 head	Temperament not assessed in Paddock

Cows are typical of cattle running in larger pastoral operations, they are well handled, worked well through the yards and are quiet to handle in the paddock and on waters. Typically some cows did stir up in the yard when placed under pressure or there calves were pressured. These cows know there way through the yards very well and handle the weighing and drafting process very well. Overall they are well handled cows that know the drill

Handled With	Aerial (Helicopters, gyro's and planes) , Bikes , Dogs , Vehicles

4 Head	Bottle tit
1 Head	Hip cap down
1 Head	Small Dog Bite near side back leg
1 Head	Stringholt

Assessor Comments	A fair mob of cast for age station mated store Cows with calves at foot. Vendor reports the cows have always performed well and produced good calves yearly, they have been joined to Red Angus Composite stabilizer and Red Brahman Bulls. Cows were vet tested in August 2026 by Longreach Vets (No Paperwork is available at time of Assessment) .Currently there are 47 Cows with calves at foot, 19 Cows identified with Yellow tags that are expected to calve by the end of December and 3 Cows identified with Orange tags to calve by end of January. This mob offers a good trading opportunity to calve out and fatten, expect plenty of compensatory weight gain from delivery, they are on the move and will do very well coming off light desert type country.
