Assessor Comments	To be offered on behalf of renowned vendors are a quality line of vendor bred Heifers 6 to 12 months of age that are described as Angus and Angus cross heifers .Heifers stand on good bone and have great confirmation to either retain as future breeders of to take though to heavier weights as they are known for their performance in feedlots. The Rule family focus on quality which show when taking home the major prizes from many cattle competitions. Heifers showing signs of winter coats with rub marks evident and approximately 10 showing signs of ringworm. Two heifers have small warts under their eye and one with a turned eye but not detrimental to vision. Heifers have a weight range of 200-314kg to average 262kg at delivery. Vendor have another two lots in same sale.
