Handled With	These females are exceptionally quiet and it is an absolute credit to the vendor as to how they have produced such a well manoured animal. I insist that you take note of the video provided as it demonstrates how docile these heifers truly are. They were extremely inquisitive animals that followed me around the paddock during photos & videos. Bikes , On foot , Vehicles

Assessor Comments	Jack McMaster T/As Woolshed Creek Agriculture & Livestock is offering a tremendous opportunity to purchase an outstanding line of Angus heifers that would be an ideal article for an avid Angus breeder as replacements or for someone to embark on a new journey into breeding Angus cattle. I cannot emphasize enough as to how quiet these heifers truly are and how beneficial they would be to your program. With the livestock market receiving a serious correction in recent times it is important to maintain quality within your future breeding program and this is an opportunity not to be missed. They are a very healthy type of animal with a soft fleshy coat and well-muscled, providing a true maternal carcass attribute.
