| Handled With       | Heifers were yarded and weighed/assessed individually, all heifers were good through the yards with only one stirring up slightly in the head bale but once back with the mob was no problem.Horses , On foot , Vehicles                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Assessor Comments  | A nice, neat line of 19 ultra black heifers, these heifers would make lovely breeders as they are out of stud Nindooibah cows which have been AI'd to Stud Nindooibah bulls. They are only being sold due to continued dry weather conditions and would usually be kept for their own breeding program. Buyers, please note the vendor is offering these cattle delivered Silverdale Clear of the Dip with an overnight curfew |
