Assessor Comments	A small group of young Red Angus commercial females with calves at foot. These heifers are at the start of their breeding lives and appear to be doing a tremendous job on their young calves. One heifer a little lighter in condition is rearing twins. Ready to join to the bull of your choosing. Haven't been joined to this point due to the age of their calves. One heifer with blemish on eye but not deemed detrimental. Vendor has another lot of older cows and calves in same sale.
