Assessor Comments	An excellent line of breeders Merino wether lambs. Clients have bred Merinos for many years, to suit the wet Western District conditions, for both wool quality and carcass quality. Being bred under these tough weather conditions, these wethers will do well in area they go to. These lambs have excellent fat cover, and are in forward, fresh condition. They have also had all the health treatments that the vendor could give to them. All the hard work has been done.
