	Quiet: 111 head Slightly Stirry: 28 head		Quiet: 56 head Slightly Stirry: 83 head		Temperament not assessed in Paddock

Cattle were assessed on their second time through the crush on a hot day directly after they were yarded. I suggest that their temperament is typical behaviour considering the circumstances of the assessment. No malice was observed. The cattle tended to push in race and move as one in the outer yards.
