Temperament

Yards	Crush	Paddock
Quiet: 52 head Slightly Stirry: 6 head	Quiet: 50 head Slightly Stirry: 8 head	Temperament not assessed in Paddock

These heifers were a pleasure to handle in all areas of the yards. This is a result of being handled properly at weaning and the general management of the entire herd. Very odd heifer could be considered slightly stirry in the crush only. These heifers are still settling down since they have returned from agistment. They do need to be steadied through gateways and this is a normal cattle handling practice.

Handled With: Bikes , Dogs , Horses , Vehicles

Notable Traits

	Traits
8 Head	Eye scaring (total line of 230)
1 Head	Ring worm scars (total line of 230 head)
2 Head	Treated eyes (total line of 230)
12 Head	Warts on head and/or neck (total line of 230 head)

Assessor Comments: A very good quality line of 230 young Angus future breeders bred out of some top quality classed herds of females. These are being offered in 4 lots to allow all buyers the opportunity to operate in multiples of 2 decks. They will be delivered as a "run of the gate" into even lines if multiple buyers purchase these heifers. These have been away in the Longreach area on agistment since July/August and have been home for a month. Considering all the handling and transportation to agistment and back they have been in hand quite a lot and are just starting to hit their straps and clean up in the coat. Apart from all that they have presented in store to forward store condition they have weighed well and possess depth of barrel and length. They tick all the boxes depending which enterprise you need them for. Suit to replenish depleted breeder herds for a continuation in the Angus industry or very suitable for a Wagyu program. The notable traits listed is of the total line of 230 head.
