Steers were a pleasure to handle through the yards. Wanted to run when going through a gate or down a fence, they were easy to block up.

Assessor Comments

These steers had a tough start to life but are now doing well. The vendor estimates they are putting on a kilo per day since last weighing. There is still an odd steer with a long coat and looking slightly woody but will turn around quickly given the right opportunity. There is one Steer approximately three months older weighing 348 kg. These Steers are the top of the drop, with a small tail taken out. The vendor has the Heifer portion in the same sale , that may help with trucking arrangements.
