Assessor Comments	On offer is a great opportunity to secure some high-quality Simmental genetics. The York family name is highly regarded in the Simmental breed, and the Casa Toro prefix is well known for producing high quality Simmental bulls and females. This group of 11 Very Good Quality heifers would make genuine replacement breeders, and due to their weight for age are ideal to take home to join or AI to the sires of your choice. Heifers show all desired attributes of the traditional Simmental female with ample softness, length and depth of body. This group were part of the studs “T” drop heifers to be retained as future breeders in their bull breeding operation, but have since become available due to ongoing dry and low summer rainfall. Six heifers are currently registered with the Simmental Australia Breed Society and can be transferred at purchases expense, please see notable traits section for registration break up. Vendors have another lot of younger Simmental females listed in this same sale.
