Handled With	In the paddock they allowed me to drive through them without much concern. In the yards they bunch up and i would describe them as quick. They will suit those with cattle skills. I have grown these cattle out with other clients over the years and they will end up lovely cattle to handle. Bikes , On foot
Assessor Comments	I have seen the steer portion grown out to bullock steers and there are very impressive grown cattle. They are currently showing the signs of grazing the hills where the feed is now short and dry. In the paddock they allowed me to drive through them without much concern. In the yards they bunch up and I would describe them as quick. They will suit those with cattle skills
