Handled With	Bull was assessed on his own in the vendors yards and was ok to work with. He did get slightly stirred whilst videoing but was only general for a bull being on his own in yards with no other cattle around. Agent would suggest that buyers should have other cattle in the yard when they take delivery of the bull to keep happy in a new environment. Vendor notes that bull is generally very quite

Assessor Comments	Quality Brangus Stud bull that is now surplus to the vendor's requirements. Bull has only had limited use as the vendor only has a small number of cows. Eros is a deep powerful bull that has a data set to match with good figures for growth and muscle. Definitely a bull that will put some punch into his calves whether it be going back over Brangus cows or being used
