	Lovely natured, bucket reared females. Very easy to handle in the yards and crush. Absolutely no malice in them, One heifer that was doing a bit of weaving and stomping in the crush, eager to h get back to her calf, listed above as slightly

Handled With	stirry because of this. Otherwise, these are cattle that could be handled by a stock person of any experience. Dogs , On foot , Vehicles
Notable Traits	Traits 1 Head WHP from a penicillin jab for a swollen foot earlier in the month.
Assessor Comments	Very quiet line of nice young heifers, all carrying plenty of milk and doing an excellent job on their bright eyed, shiny young calves. These Heifers have been low maintenance, natural young mothers, all calving unassisted & putting everything in to their paddies, making sure they never see a tough day, whilst still maintaining an easy 2 score condition on short, dry basic pastures. A perfect small sized lot for a hobby farmer wanting a few vealer mothers, or a buyer wanting to add them to part of a larger mob. Buyers please Note. Vendor has another 4 Angus x Friesian Heifers in the same sale.
