| Assessor Comments  | An opportunity to buy a small group of very well bred Angus Cows coming out of Canaga Angus stud program. Excellent temperament and would be an ideal foundation for a small Angus herd. A great start up herd or herd extension to suit any operation.                                                                                                                                      |                                          |               |
