These steers were ok to handle. Still had to handle with some care as they weren't entirely comfortable with extra people in yard, but were relatively settled when photographing and handling after being through the crush. However, experience with cattle would be recommended if intending to buy. Please take into account when operating to buy.

Handled With: Bikes , On foot , Vehicles

Assessor Comments: Highland steers in forward store condition. Steers show all attributes of the breed, are Russllyn Highland blood with vendor having bred Highland cattle for around 10 years. True to type and would suit the experienced cattle breeder/handler targeting a specific market or looking for something different look at in their paddock. (Vendor offers further drafts of a five heifers (2023 drop), one steer (2023 drop) and a heifer (2022) drop this sale. Their sire is offered in the Eastern Cattle Sale)
