Steers where extremely quiet to handle to the point that the breeders had to push them onto the weigh platform. A great example of how handle livestock they where content around strangers and behaved very well through the whole assessment process.

Handled With	Bikes , On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	The 6 poll Hereford calves in this lot are true to type for the breed very quiet and displayed great weight for age and are in strong forward store condition. The 3 Angus Hereford steer are stretching out nicely and will grow to be excellent export steers
