This line of steers are all by high indexing Angus bulls. Steers were yard weaned and strip grazed with electric fence, also well handled with dogs that shows in the temperament of the steers.                                                                              |                                           |                |
