Assessor Comments	One mark Angus and Angus/Shorthorn cross heifers based on Hazeldean blood with their first calf at foot. These heifers were purchased via AuctionsPlus ex Cooma district account the breeder as PTIC and calved down for a summer trade. They were joined with a bit more age due to a bull break down and have handled calving perfectly. Temperament is a positive being calm throughout the assessment process - refer video of heifers leading themselves through the crush for assessing. They are NSM and will be ready for the sire of your choosing with cycling already evident. Calves are 100% black, marked, vaccinated and consist of 21 steers and 19 heifers to average 102kg. They were sired by Rossrich 38 Special S51 and Rossrich 38 Special S18. These heifers are well grown for age being medium to large framed presenting in store and will top up to heavy weights with quality feed. Ideal for a trade or even to retain as breeders. Should you require any additional information please call.
