Well handled calves that worked well in the yards, are use to being handled. Calves that were nice and quiet and moved away from you, when put a bit of pressure on them. An odd calf jumped around in the crush but nothing to worry about.

Assessor Comments	22 Spring drop Angus steer calves sired by the Leawood Angus Bull. Calves look good, are nice and fresh with woolly coats now with the cooler nights set in. Vendor has been concentrating on the Leawood bloodlines and has been buying bulls and of recent even females out of their annual on property sale. These steer calves were a pleasure to handle, no fuss at all moved and flowed well through the yards. Use to being handled and shifted on a regular basis by the vendor. Steer calves were weighed and assessed and put back in the paddock with mum. Please note = Vendor willing to yard wean at buyers request upon delivery. Also One steer calf has old pink eye scar RHS.
