	Steers were very good to handle at assessment and easy to move around. None of the steers were distressed but 2 of them were slightly stirry in crush at assessment. Once released they were fine.
Handled With	Bikes , On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	Great to see the 'Kenny's Creek' Genetics the Hawthorne Family invested in 6 years ago start to pay dividends. Steers are good to handle and present good frame for quick weight gain. These steers will perform well, all previous buyers happy with the cattle. Very nice types with a decent tail removed, tops of 50 steers.
