	Extremely quiet and very well handled draft of steers which were an absolute pleasure to draft and handle, very respectful of people and their surrounds
Handled With	On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	A very attractive and well bred group of young steers in very forward condition. These cattle were a pleasure to work and will adapt to any environment they are introduced in to. Quality steers with depth, softness and strength of bone that could be finished on grain or grass and have the potential to mature into heavy carcase weights.
