Temperament

Yards	Crush	Paddock
Quiet: 80 head	Quiet: 76 head Slightly Stirry: 4 head	Temperament not assessed in Paddock

These steers were very good to handle in the yards and through the crush. Little to no rush when being drafted through the pound, moving from yard to yard & easily flowed through the race onto the scales. The slightly stirry steers were from being isolated or made stand too long on the platform. A lot of time has been put into the handling process of these cattle.

Handled With: Bikes , Dogs , Horses , On foot
