Very easy doing Hazeldean /Reiland blood females that are classed in keeper heifers. Joined to Hazeldean and Reiland bulls to calve late July . Only selling due to change in direction . These are very good to handle and would grow into front paddock cows. Note 2 heifers with white under bellies .                                                  |
