Assessor Comments	A fair run of medium sized second calving, black baldy cows- some crossed with shorthorn as per breed description. Good calves at foot by a stud Shorthorn bull which the cows have be rejoined to. Varied weights within the calves due to them ranging from 1 to 4 months old. Cattle handled well in the paddock, handled ok in the yards and crush considering the condition of the facilities. Presenting in good condition for early winter and are putting plenty into their calves
