The heifers are extremely good to handle, barely anything fidgeted at all in the crush or race with nearly all walking on and off the scales calmly without rush. The vendors spend a lot of time handling their cattle and it shows in how calm and content they are.

Assessor Comments	From the renowned "Longway" Santa Gertrudis herd of cows, large frame & exceptional temperament & quality. A pleasure to handle - suitable breeder replacement heifers that will move ahead very quickly on good feed - acclimatized to eating pallets from tubs and bunkers growing well since weaning, great bone length and style. A very even draft , very clean and tidy heads with the majority poll.
