Temperament

Yards	Crush	Paddock
Quiet: 18 head Slightly Stirry: 8 head	Quiet: 20 head Slightly Stirry: 6 head	Temperament not assessed in Paddock

Heifers were well behaved throughout assessment. Yards were quite noisy, portable yards, with no race, just a small gate into a single animal race with the scales in it. Heifers were all very easy and willing to step in and up on to the scales, majority standing quietly and exiting at a walk, just a few that were a bit anxious, or had to be pushed around to get every foot up on to the scales. Happily walk up to the car in the paddock, and will only get better with age and handling.

	1 Head	Very minor Eye Blemish (>90% vision)

Assessor Comments	Very nice line of pure Lawson Angus Blood Heifers. Bred in Shepparton by the Mancini Co, and purchased out of the Wangaratta store sale as part of a herd dispersal. These females represented part of the lead draft of heifers sold. Very pretty face, true to type young females, with a very roomy, maternal style about them, and a kind disposition. Heifers that have been very well produced by the Hall family, never missing a beat. Right on the doorstep of finishing off in a grass fed Supermarket program, but really, it would be a shame not to see females of this quality be put to the Bulls and dropped into a Spring calving program.
