	Cattle worked through yards and crush at pace. Some of these steers became agitated when in the crush whilst being mouthed (not unusual). When let out they settled back to the mob quickly. These steers did move off when pressure was applied in bigger yards, I would advise purchasers give them time to settle into new environment.

Assessor Comments	Buyers here is an opportunity to buy a very good quality run of steers. These steers stand on good bone and conformation. They would ideally suit feedlots feeding for the domestic and/or export market. They would also suit backgrounders to put away on crops or grass. These steers present in strong store condition and have been on very dry short feed, I would expect a lot of compensatory weight gain to be had. Buyers please note vendor has 80 heavier steers in the same sale.
