The Tawandi Farm stock have been regularly purchased by repeat buyers locally due to their natural docility. The heifers themselves handled quite well through the assessment for young unweaned stock being easy to draft and respected both minor pressure to work and being easy to block if desired.

Assessor Comments	Offering on account of Tawandi Farms of Wandiligong, their annual draft of heifers presenting a healthy store condition and are responding well to the hay and silage offered. These heifers display the most desirable traits to add to a breeding operation being long bodied, feminine females that are docile and easily worked. They are know for locally being stock that carry frame, bone and volume that are regularly sold to repeat customers having witnessed the do-ability and performance of very well bred true to type cold country stock. These young females are highly recommended for those looking for docile cattle that will perform. A small tail was removed to maintain the quality of the heifer draft. Weaned at assessment. Grass Fed Only and Antibiotic Free. Please note there are 2 lots of steers offered in the same sale.
