Young Heifers that have been mucked around with for a week mothering up worked well through the yards with the odd hiefer being agitated while put under pressure

Handled With: On foot , Vehicles

Notable Traits

	Traits
2 Head	Blue eye with scar on the eye
1 Head	White eye that has been treated due to a grass seed

Assessor Comments: A nice line of medium frame angus heifers that are doing an outstanding job of their calves. While the heifers are looking for more feed now they have good lumps of calves on them, they would certainly go ahead in leaps and bounds given the opportunity. As these heifers haven't had the opportunity back to the bull you can join them up to the bull of your choice knowing that they have done it all before on their own. note 2 heifers with a cloudy eye and 1 heifer that was treated for a grass seed.
