	Steers were anxious at drafting, and lack general education in the yards. They were brought up from the back yard by a single handler into the force yard, and were very nervous, but generally well behaved in the crush, all exiting from the side gate. Cattle that just need more handling.

Notable Traits	Traits 1 Head Small lump on jaw. Noticed after weighing. To be checked prior to delivery
Assessor Comments	Store condition steers that have done it tough all year and have not been spoilt. Just ticking along on an old lupin stubble with some supplementary hay. These steers are all frame and present in mostly 1 & low 2 score condition, offering the successful purchaser a huge compensatory weight gain kick heading into Spring. Good, low dollar investment steers with plenty of opportunity. Please Note. Majority of steers were only marked about 8 weeks ago, with many still presenting quite thick & pizzley.
