| Assessor Comments                            | A nice line of vendor bred Angus cross heifers that are bred out of a mixed dairy herd. No heifers have been retained for breeding. These heifers would suit to grow out and kill or be used as vealer mothers. All the heifers handled well through the yards and are a credit to the vendor temperament wise.                                                                              |                                     |                          |                                              |                |                |                                     |      |     |       |      |   |      |      |     |  |  |  |  |
