Assessor Comments	Annual draft of noted performing steers off "Warrah" presenting in fresh store condition and ready to explode given favourable feed conditions. Steers that present with all frame just emerging from a tight seasonal Winter and ready to roll. Bred in the South/Eastern Slopes country , these steers are out of good framed volume females and carry Ardrossan, Hazeldean and Jarobee Angus bloodlines. Approximately 20% of this mob showing old ringworm scarring principally around the face/neck and will improve once we hit the warmer weather. Brooksby Pastoral are offering two B Doubles of steers over two lots in this sale and they represent the lead drafts of their steer progeny with each lot just coming out of different management paddocks and note a tail has been removed from each group. Bid with confidence on these renowned performing steers. PCAS/Never Ever Grass Only declaration available at purchasers request. Easy B Double access with cattle located on the Hume Highway
