These young cows are not aggressive in any way. They have a larger than normal flight zone and want to run away from you in the yards. Don't get me wrong they aren't quite but once handled for a few minutes, calmed down considerably and will block up no problems. They are just not quite, with a bit more handle and experience I'm sure they will mellow but full of feed at assessment this is how they presented.

Notable Traits

	Traits
1 Head	Old eye scar
6 Head	White spot on udder

Assessor Comments	Cracking line of well grown 1st calves with very sappy young, unmarked calves at foot. Dams are fresh and showing the affects of a great winter and calves are as fresh as paint and growing rapidly with big milk supply. Great oppertunity to take home and re join to the bull of your choosing while they raise a calf that's had a great start to its career! Dams are Karoo and Glengowan blood, calves are sired by Outwest Angus bull. Quality breeders of the future!
